ATTEND A CLASS

Check out class offerings in your area. Community colleges, conservation districts and Master Gardeners all offer winter classes.

STARTING SEEDS

In February and early March you can start seeds indoors for early maturing vegetables such as broccoli, artichokes, leeks, onions and kale.

CHECK HOUSEPLANTS

Indoor, heated air is dry and many insects take advantage of the conditions and flourish. Check your indoor plants for aphids, mealy bugs and scale. A warm shower will usually do the trick to get rid of the pests.

WALKING ON GRASS

It may be tempting with little to no snow to get out and check on the garden, but stay on hard surfaces and paths. Walking on saturated sod will compact the soil and make it much harder for your grass to grow roots.

JIM SEIVERS CAPTURES PRO NOSTALGIA TITLE

Jim Seivers has now won the Pro Nostalgia A field points championship for the second time in three years. Jim Seivers photo

SPOKANE — Longtime Spokane drag racer Jim Seivers won the Pro Nostalgia A field points championship for the second time in three years.

"This is a series based at the legendary Woodburn Dragstrip close to Portland and has cars coming from as far away as Arizona and California. It features front engine dragsters, altereds and nostalgia funny cars," Seivers wrote in a text message.

Most of the cars are new purpose-built cars, but there are a few old cars from the sixties, Seivers explained.

"One is Mike Floyd's junior fuel car," Seivers said. "His dad, Earl, raced way back when. It runs a Desoto Hemi on 98% nitro and will make you cry from the smell. Floyd's car can still go 190 mph, but the et is in the high 7s which isn't fast enough for the A field.

"We went into the last race of the series with a good lead being the only car with more than one win," Seivers said.

I told my crew all we had to do was qualify in the A field which is not that easy considering it took a 6 second pass to make it at the last event, and due to rain we only got one shot at it. Seivers laid down a 6.83 which ended up number one qualifier because nobody wanted to chance tire shake by leaning on it.

"My crew, Chris Madison, and Jaci Paslay went nuts on the starting line celebrating, or so I was told. I wasn't a hundred percent sure about the points and broke in the first round against the third-place car of Jay Kinney.

Then watched Jay and the 2nd place car go to the final with Steve Henry getting the win. I knew it was close and here are the results.

Seivers thanks Chris and Jaci for their efforts, and also gave kudos to the rest of the racers in the class.

"This is a very competitive series, some really good cars and drivers in this," Seivers said. "They are all great people, knowledgeable, and we are proud to call them friends."

Pro Nostalgia A 2025 Point Leaders

Position; Driver; Points
1. Jim Seivers; 391
2. Steve Henry; 376
3. Jay Kinney; 347
4. Nick Pruett; 301
5. Dave Reed; 300

TYLER REDDICK CLAIMS BACK-TO-BACK VICTORY AT ATLANTA

By Holly Cain; NASCAR Wire Service

HAMPTON, Ga. (February 22, 2025) – Tyler Reddick answered his DAYTONA 500 victory a week ago with a dramatic double overtime comeback win Sunday evening in the AutoTrader 400 at EchoPark Speedway, marking the first time in nearly two decades a driver has won the first two races of the NASCAR Cup Series season.

Even though Reddick's No. 45 23XI Racing Toyota's right front fender was damaged in an earlier incident, he was able to persevere, zigging-and-zagging and making a strong move to the front on the very last lap. He finished a mere .164-second ahead of fellow Toyota driver, Joe Gibbs Racing's Chase Briscoe who gave Reddick the crucial winning push to get ahead of his 23XI teammate Bubba Wallace and the Chevrolets of Carson Hocevar and Ross Chastain.

Reddick's work makes him only the sixth driver in NASCAR history to win the opening two races of the year. NASCAR Hall of Famer Matt Kenseth was the last to do so in 2009.

Reddick, who actually led a race best 53 of the 271 laps, jumped out of his damaged Toyota Camry to retrieve the checkered flag, pausing to take a long look at the right front damage – and missing fender - then smiling and wondering aloud how he pulled that victory off as well after being collected in a nine-car accident only 40 laps from the end of the scheduled distance.

"That's crazy, how about that EchoPark Speedway?" the 30-year old Californian yelled to the packed grandstands. "This place over the years it just puts on some amazing racing. Handling matters here, but I don't know, I guess determination outweighs handling."

His team co-owner, NBA legend Michael Jordan was equally as jubilant with Reddick's rebound.

"Tyler did an unbelievable job, both teams did an unbelievable job" Jordan said, also referring to Wallace, who led 46 laps but finished eighth in the final all-out push to the checkers.

The Chevrolets of Trackhouse Racing Ross Chastain and Spire Motorsports teammates Hocevar and Daniel Suarez rounded out the top-five behind Reddick and Briscoe.

In another phenomenal comeback story, Chastain's Trackhouse Racing teammate Shane Van Gisbergen finished sixth his best oval finish in his two years in the series – even after the former Australian Supercars Series champion was caught up in three of the yellow flag incidents on the day.

The NASCAR Cup Series moves to its first road course of the season March 1 for the DuraMax Grand Prix Powered by RelaDyne at Austin's famed Circuit of the Americas.

Tyler Reddick, driver of the #45 Pinnacle Toyota, and Joey Logano, driver of the #22 Shell Pennzoil Ford, lead the field to the green flag to start the NASCAR Cup Series Autotrader 400 at Echo Park Speedway on February 22 in Hampton, Georgia. NASCAR photo
